Everyone Comes to the Christmas Headquarters

THE New York Store for Indiana—truly true at all times, but overwhelmingly proven during holiday times. More comfortable this year than ever, as the result of enlarged quarters, widened aisles and better arranged fixtures. More to look at, too. Every floor connected by three modern elevators of the latest type with a capacity nearly double what it formerly was. Two continents have contributed to the stocks—stocks that carry such a diversity of suggestions that everyone can find just the thing they want. A day here is well spent; lunch served on Fifth Floor at moderate cost, a waiting and writing room elegantly appointed is free to rest in and a retiring room with a maid in attendance at all times are all at your disposal. You can do all your shopping without leaving the store.

Holiday Books
